NWACC Screens ‘The Help’

Bentonville, Ark. (Feb. 20, 2012) — NorthWest Arkansas Community College will screen the movie “The Help” from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24, in White Hall on the NWACC campus in Bentonville.
A film discussion will follow from 9 to 10 p.m.
This is part of the college’s celebration of Black History Month.
The event is open to the public. Donation of one can or bag of dog or cat food per person is requested. Pet food will be donated to a no-kill animal shelter.

NorthWest Arkansas Community College is a comprehensive, public two-year college that serves and strengthens the community through learning for living. NWACC's service area is defined by the Arkansas Department of Higher Education as Benton and Washington counties in extreme northwest Arkansas. The commitment of NWACC to life-long learning can be seen in the quality of instruction it offers, and the variety of programs it has designed to move students into the job market in a minimum amount of time, enrich people's lives, and prepare them to further their education.
