NWACC Hosts Veterans Day Program

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (Nov. 9, 2011) – Northwest Arkansas Community College’s annual Veterans Day Program will be conducted from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday (Nov. 11) in room 108 of the Student Center on the Bentonville campus.

Several NWACC staff members and students will take part in the observance.

Student Zackary Jackson, who is in the Army, will serve as master of ceremonies.

Guest speaker for the event will be Jerry Vervack, dean of social and behavioral sciences.

A slideshow of NWACC veterans and family members will be presented, and a roll call of special guests will close out the ceremony.

NorthWest Arkansas Community College is a comprehensive, public two-year college that serves and strengthens the community through learning for living. NWACC’s service area is defined by the Arkansas Department of Higher Education as Benton and Washington counties in extreme northwest Arkansas. The commitment of NWACC to life-long learning can be seen in the quality of instruction it offers, and the variety of programs it has designed to move students into the job market in a minimum amount of time, enrich people's lives, and prepare them to further their education.
