NWACC Will Host Return to Learn
Event Provides Insight into College Courses, Services

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (June 8, 2012) – NorthWest Arkansas Community College will host Return to Learn on June 14. Return to Learn is a student recruitment event aimed at helping nontraditional students overcome enrollment hurdles.

Return to Learn will begin at 6 p.m. Thursday, June 14, in the Walmart Auditorium of the Shewmaker Center for Workforce Technologies.

Organizers will cover topics such as enrolling at NWACC, Career Services, Academic Advising, flexible schedule options and Financial Aid, including completing the Free Application for Federal Aid, also known as FAFSA. Prospective students should bring their 2011 tax return, and NWACC’s financial aid specialists will help in completing the application.

This event will help not only those interested in taking college classes, but those who would like to obtain workforce certification or earn a GED.

The schedule for the evening includes the following activities:
- 5:30-6:10 p.m. – Check-in and sign-up for tour and FASFA assistance
- 6:10 p.m. – Welcome
- 6:15-6:20 p.m. – Event overview with special emphasis on the needs and goals of nontraditional students
- 6:20-6:50 p.m. – Enrollment information session
- 5:45-7:30. – Student Services Fair
- 6:55 - 7:30 - Tours and FAFSA Assistance available
- 8 p.m. – Ending session, including door prizes

Organizers ask that participants arrive by 6 p.m. More information about Return to Learn is available by calling Jamie Johnston at 479-986-4050 or emailing jjohnston4@nwacc.edu.

NorthWest Arkansas Community College is a comprehensive, public two-year college that serves and strengthens the community through learning for living. NWACC’s service area is defined by the Arkansas Department of Higher Education as Benton and Washington counties in extreme northwest Arkansas. The commitment of NWACC to life-long learning can be seen in the quality of instruction it offers, and the variety of programs it has designed to move students into the job market in a minimum amount of time, enrich people's lives, and prepare them to further their education.
