NWACC Bella Vista Center
Seeking Instructors for Classes

BELLA VISTA, Ark. (September 10, 2012) – NorthWest Arkansas Community College’s Bella Vista Center is seeking instructors to teach non-credit classes for the spring semester which will run Jan. 21 through June 30.

Instructors are being sought in the following areas:

- Arts and Crafts: painting with watercolors, pastels, and oils, decorative painting, jewelry making, card making, photography, stained glass, and calligraphy
- Bridge: fundamentals of bidding and playing
- Business and Financial: QuickBooks, e-marketing for small businesses, professional blogging, publishing, Microsoft Excel, Publisher and Word
- Computers: Microsoft application specific courses and social media applications
- Fitness and Activities: Yoga, Tai Chi, Zumba, Jazzercise, and tap dance
- Foreign Languages: Spanish, Italian, French, German or other languages
- Literature: creative writing, poetry, and book discussions
- Music: piano, keyboard and guitar
- Nature and Science: bird watching, Arkansas nature, geology, and astronomy.

If instructors have another specialty not listed, they are encouraged to still submit course information. The deadline for submitting course information is Friday, Sept. 28.

For more information about teaching classes at the Bella Vista Center, contact Jean Anderson, executive director for the NWACC Bella Vista Center, by calling 479-619-4208, or emailing janderson@nwacc.edu. The Bella Vista Center is located in the lower level of the Highlands Crossing Center, 1801 Forest Hills Blvd.
Caption for photograph titled Spanish BVC.JPG:
Students and instructor Carol Johnson gather in a Conversational Spanish class at the Bella Vista Center. Shown, from left, are Bonnie Mason, Barbara Hostetler, Johnson, Ellen Dey and Joan Watkins.